

Introduction to SharePoint 2010 Development

- Understanding SharePoint 2010 Server Object Mode
- Creating SharePoint 2010 Applications
- Enumerating SP2010 Farm Hierarchies
- Manipulating properties of objects in the SharePoint
- SharePoint 2010 Developer Tools
- Packaging features and solution using VS 2010

Creating SharePoint 2010 Web parts

- Creating normal web part
- Creating SharePoint components in webparts
- Creating visual webpart using VS 2010
- Difference between normal and visual webpart
- AJAX enabling a webpart
- Understanding CAML and SPQuery
- LINQ to SharePoint
- Creating application pages

Creating Event receivers and application settings

- Event Handlers and uses
- List Item Event Receivers
- List Event Receivers
- Creating Feature Receivers to Modify Web.Config
- Creating Web Event Receivers

Developing SharePoint 2010 workflows

- OOB Workflows
- Developing InfoPath 2010 with SharePoint Designer workflows
- Developing WF using visual studio 2010
- Advanced workflow scenarios

Developing interactive user interfaces

- Creating site actions menu items

- Creating a ribbon items – button, group and tabs
- Creating client side dialog

Developing Client object model

- Understanding client object model
- Developing Silverlight applications
- Implementing JavaScript

Advanced developments

- Developing Sandboxed solutions
- Taxonomy APIs
- Programming with timer jobs
- Developing content management
- Customizing master pages
- Applying themes
- Developing Solutions by using BCS

SharePoint as a Developer Platform Share point 2013

- SharePoint 2013 Introduction
- Software and Hardware Requirement
- What are all the new features have been added into SharePoint 2013
- Introduction list and document libraries in SharePoint 2013
- Difference between SharePoint 2010 and 2013
- Overview SharePoint 2013 Product Topology & Architecture SharePoint 2013
- SharePoint Content Types Overview of Enterprise Content Type Architecture Create and Manage Site Columns
- Content Types Document Sets, Term Stores, Content Types
- Out -of-box web parts features
- Deployment plan for SharePoint 2013

Working with SharePoint Objects

- Understanding the SharePoint Object Hierarchy
- Working with Sites and Webs
- Working with Execution Contexts

Working with Lists and Libraries

- Using List and Library Objects
- Querying and Retrieving List Data
- Working with Large Lists

Designing and Managing Features and Solutions

- Working with Features
- Deploying Solutions
- Working with Sandboxed Solutions
Working with Server-Side Code
- Developing Web Parts
- Using Event Receivers
- Using Timer Jobs
- Storing Configuration Data

Managing Identity and Permissions

- Understanding Identity Management in SharePoint 2013
- Managing Permissions in SharePoint 2013
- Configuring Forms-Based Authentication
- Customizing the Authentication Experience

Managing Custom Components and Site Lifecycles

- Component Overview
- Defining Custom Lists
- Defining Custom Sites
- Managing SharePoint Sites Introducing Apps for SharePoint
- Overview of Apps for SharePoint
- Developing Apps for SharePoint

Resume Preparation & Placement Assistance

Future Q Technologies

Ph : +91-9581111796 / 896 Email: online@futureqtech.com ; URL: www.futureqtech.com www.facebook.com/futureqtech